Day 1: Road trip to Sahara

You will be collected in a 2020 Toyota Land Cruiser following breakfast to embark on your journey through the Tizi n'Tichka pass, the direct route towards Ouarzazate. This spectacular and dramatic road presents astonishing views of the snow topped peaks of the Atlas as well as many Berber villages.

You will make a stop at AitBenHaddou to view the old and well-known Kasbah of Morocco and have lunch.

Then descend into Ouarzazate that you pass to cross the gorges and reach Agdz, where the palm grove of the Draa Valley lines. This is the longest river valley in Morocco

Day 1: Accommodation Dar Hnini

Spend the night in heart of the palm groves in the beautiful villas at Dar Hnini. Paradise awaits you in a lush green oasis set against the backdrop of volcanic mountain ranges creating a spellbinding sanctuary with a private garden and plunge pool.

The design inspiration expresses the rich beauty in natural earthy materials, hatched and tented roofs, and lavish fabrics. Ancient Moroccan yet modern in style each villa is airily balancing a sense of intimacy with stunning views. Bespoke furnishing accentuated with local artefacts sits comfortably in modern luxury.

You will have dinner featuring a farm to table seasonal menu followed by breakfast in the morning before you make your way to the desert camps in the Sahara.

Day 2: Desert Luxury Camps

Today you will start the day traveling along the valley and many Saharan Berber villages, later the palm groves will be gone and barren volcanic mountains will lead your way to the desert. Pass through Merzouga and the magnificent apricot colored sand dunes of Erg Chebbi.

As late afternoon falls you retreat to the comforts and luxury of the desert camp where we will be greeted with mint tea and fresh dates or nuts. The camp is set in a beautiful spot between sand dunes and gives the impression of being alone in the vast African desert while enjoying the comforts of a nomad king.

Enjoy a three course dinner prepared by the campfire beneath the starry African sky and then special entertainment will be provided around the campfire with music, drums, and singing from your Berber guides.

Spend the night in your luxury tent of choice.

Day 3: Desert Luxury Camps

Wake up to the sunrise of the Sahara dunes and enjoy a first class breakfast then head off into the vastness of the dunes on a camel caravan accompanied by cameleers. You can ride or walk alongside as you slip into the pace of the caravan led by Berber guides and marvel at the awesome spectacle of the desert and the solitude a silence that comes with it.

Enjoy a picnic lunch on the dunes and then return back to the desert camp.

In the afternoon you can try sand-boarding the dunes, ATVs or relax in the many areas spread around the camp.

As evening falls down you will enjoy a three course dinner and a star gazing lesson with a professor and his telescopes

Day 4: Return to Marrakech

Leaving the desert behind you'll head up into the Atlas Mountains to the Todra Gorge, a spectacular gash in the hills that surround Tinerhir. The region is dotted with deserted kasbahs, palmeries and mud-brick villages, creating a photographer's paradise. The cliffs loom above as you approach the mouth of Todra Gorge. Rising to 300m, the honey-colored hues of the sheer face change constantly as the sun moves across the sky.

Local Berber people can often be seen moving their herds through the gorge. Heading into the gorge you'll have the chance to stretch your legs on a walk to fully appreciate the beauty of the area. Rejoining the vehicle you'll retrace your steps out of the gorge and follow the route to Ouarzazate. Here we set onto the Atlas Mountains crossing them back towards Marrakech.

Drop off at Palais Ronsard for your final night in Marrakech.

Day 4: Accommodation Palais Ronsard

Enjoy your last night in Marrakech in the heart of the Palmeraie at Palais Ronsard. This beautiful hotel has been designed for a new generation of travellers who are passionate about Marrakech, but who also want to rejuvenate, facing its abundant nature and the Atlas Mountains.

Whether it is dining in the heart of Ronsard Farm's organic vegetable garden, relaxing in the hammam of the spa or discovering the wonders of the region, Palais Ronsard has a thousand and one surprises in store for you.

This package is based on the Prestige Room which includes one king or 2 single size beds with daily breakfast, fireplace and private terrace

Day 5: Marrakech

Start your morning with breakfast at Palais Ronsard.

Morning and afternoon at leisure.

Evening departure with Fast Private Jet.
